
PLC Stool

PearsonLloyd

Technical

The appealing curves of PearsonLloyd's PLC chair have been applied to the PLC stool. Set at bar height, with a comfortable footrest crafted from solid timber, the PLC stool is available in six different combinations; all in oak, with upholstered seat or seat and back or all in a matt painted finish with upholstered seat or seat and back. This wide variety of options, combined with PLC's characteristic comfort and appealing timber construction makes the PLC bar stool a great choice where simplicity, durability and versatility are paramount. A cohesive scheme is easily achieved when used in combination with other pieces from this range.
